

Return to life: psychiatric and social support for veterans and civilians

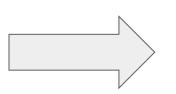

Nikolaieva Oleksandra - MD Psychiatrist of Rehabilitation Department NITO by NAMS in Ukraine.

assistant Professor of Psychosomatic Department of Educational and Scientific Institute Bogomolets National Medical University. Kyiv, Ukraine.

The structure of mental health care for the military during the war in Ukraine

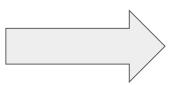

- Gunshot injury
- TBI
- Concussion

- patient is admitted to a hospital
- psychiatric examination

- Instrumental diagnostics
- Specialized treatment

- Opinion of the Central Medical Commission
- Review of combat capability
- Rehabilitation

Principles of separation of patients

Active military

Veterans

Military with amputation

With polistructural arm-injuries

Pharmacological psychiatric treatment

- Group of antidepressants
- Neuropsychotics
- Pregabalins

Treatment Equipment:

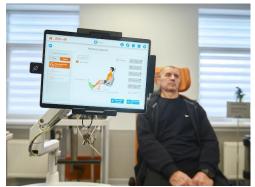

- TMS
- VRET

Steps to psychological and physical recovery:

- Rehabilitation centers
- Rehabilitation departments
- Outpatient centers
- Самр
- Online programs

Rehabilitation program:

- program duration 21 days
 - assessment by a multidisciplinary team
 - psychosocial interventions
 - online support after patient discharge

Reintegration of veterans into social life: CAMP

GOAL OF THE RECOVERY PROGRAM:

- Restoring the mental health of veterans/their families
- Reintegration of veterans into social life
- Development of productive coping strategies
- Work with grief

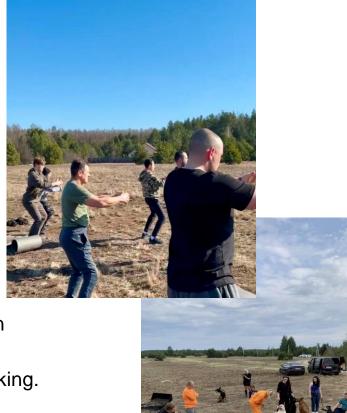

REHABILITATION AREAS

Psychological - incoming/outgoing diagnostics, self-help protocols from ITC, protocols of the SETA program, psychoeducation on pressing issues.

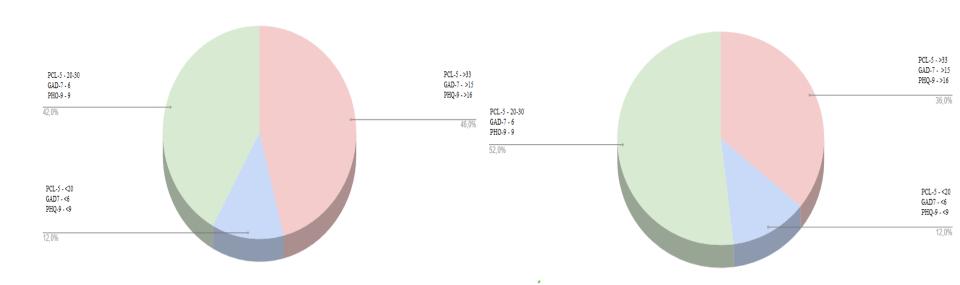

Social - legal counseling, career guidance, education and training, employment

Medical diagnostics - comprehensive medical examination

Psychophysiological - morning exercises, nature walks/hiking.

Results

Burnout prevention

self-help trainings psychoeducation
the rules of communication conferences
personal growth trainings

Thank you for your Support and Attention!

